From Independent to Interdependent Sectors

- ◆ Business comprises the commercial sector.
- ◆ Government comprises the public sector.
- ◆ Civil society comprises the independent sector and NGOs.
- ◆ Many view these sectors as separate entities, and often, these sectors seemingly operate in a vacuum.
- ◆ When they work together and align their goals and methods, the three sectors combine to create great things-- operating complementarily as interdependent sectors.

Interdependence

In the progress of personality, first comes a declaration of independence, then a recognition of interdependence.

~Poet Henry Van Dyke

We are part of the whole which we call the universe, but it is an optical delusion of our mind that we think we are separate. This separateness is like a prison for us. Our task must be to widen the circle of compassion so we feel connected to all people and all situations.

~Scientist Albert Einstein

Great discoveries and improvements invariably involve the cooperation of many minds. I may be given credit for having blazed the trail but when I look at the subsequent developments I feel the credit is due to others rather than to myself.

~Inventor Alexander Graham Bell

Interdependence is and ought to be as much the ideal of man as self-sufficiency. Man is a social being. Without interrelation with society he cannot realize his oneness with the universe or suppress his egotism. His social interdependence enables him to test his faith and to prove himself on the touchstone of reality.

~Mahatma Gandhi

Interdependence is a state of being with mutual responsibility and dependency upon others.
